HOLIDAY TOUR OF HOMES

PAINESVILLE, OH (December 4, 2016) – Five historic buildings will be open and on display by the Downtown Painesville Organization to celebrate the holiday season from 1-5 pm. Starting at the Railroad Museum on Railroad Street, the self-guided tour will take you through the Denton-Powers House, Steele Mansion, Mathews House, and will end at the Lake County Historical Society. Individuals are also encouraged to attend vespers at Lake Erie College following the tour.

This tour is to celebrate the holiday season with the community. It is also an opportunity to see and learn about the historic architecture which is not normally open to the public. Proceeds from this event will go to the Downtown Painesville Organization to support its mission of "Building a strong future, while preserving our historic past."

Quickly register for this event as only 500 tickets are being sold at $15 each. You can contact the Downtown Painesville Organization at lisa@downtownpainesville.org or david@downtownpainesville.org for more information. Tickets are available online through www.eventbrite.com with an additional service fee. Search Holiday Tour of Homes.

The Downtown Painesville Organization is a non-profit organization that preserves the history while building the future of Painesville.
